

Journey into Space and the Stars for Preschoolers

A Kid-Friendly Question and Answer

The Moon

Q: What is the moon?

A: The moon is a big rock that orbits Earth.

Q: Why does the moon change shape?

A: We see different parts of it as it moves around Earth.

The Sun

Q: What is the sun?

A: The sun is a big, hot star.

Q: What does the sun do?

A: It gives us light and keeps us warm.

Harvest Moon

Q: What is a harvest moon?

A: It is a bright full moon in the fall.

Q: Why is it special?

A: It lights up the night for farmers.

Shooting Star

Q: What is a shooting star?

A: It is a tiny rock burning in the sky.

Q: Is it really a star?

A: No, it is a fast-moving space rock.

Constellations

Q: What are constellations?

A: They are groups of stars that make shapes.

Journey into Space and the Stars for Preschoolers

A Kid-Friendly Question and Answer

Q: Why do we use them?

A: They help us find our way in the sky.

Galaxies

Q: What is a galaxy?

A: A galaxy is a huge group of stars.

Q: Where do we live?

A: We live in the Milky Way galaxy.

Nebula

Q: What is a nebula?

A: A nebula is a cloud of gas and dust in space.

Q: What happens there?

A: New stars can form inside it.

Planets

Q: What is a planet?

A: A planet is a big round object that orbits the sun.

Q: How many planets are there?

A: There are eight planets in our solar system.

Asteroids

Q: What is an asteroid?

A: It is a rocky object in space.

Q: Where are they found?

A: Many are between Mars and Jupiter.

Journey into Space and the Stars for Preschoolers

A Kid-Friendly Question and Answer

Meteors

Q: What is a meteor?

A: It is a rock that burns when it enters Earth's sky.

Q: What do we see?

A: A bright streak of light.

Space Station

Q: What is a space station?

A: It is a place in space where astronauts live and work.

Q: What do they do there?

A: They study space and Earth.

Continue the journey through history with The Adventures of Christopher Thornbuckle.
Download more learning resources at discoverytrailpressbooks.com.

Journey into Space and the Stars for Preschoolers

A Kid-Friendly Question and Answer